

d. "All of these are possible. There may be other possibilities that we have not thought of, so I am going to add "something else" to remind us of that possibility. From here we would look for ways to test explanations for evidence against them so that we could cross ones that do not work off the list."

